Teaching under COVID-19

While we are barely half-way through it, 2020 will certainly go down in history as a year to remember – not only for the direct health impact COVID-19 has had on millions of lives, but also for how it has left an indelible mark on every facet of humanity. In the case of our College, the pandemic has, in one sweeping stroke, transformed the way we conducted our most important activity – teaching – in Semester Two of 2019/20. Instead of face-to-face, all lessons starting Week 2 were delivered online.

And it was one massive undertaking, giving us our fair share of blood, sweat and tears pedagogically, technologically and operationally. Yet the unprecedented challenge also has its silver lining. For one, we have learned, in the realm of online teaching, valuable lessons with far-reaching implications for our development, not the least on the front of blended learning. Furthermore, it has shown us that teamwork, sharing and mutual support – among lecturers, administrative staff, supporting services staff and management – can move mountains.

疫情下教學

雖然僅僅過了一半，但 2020 年肯定會成為歷史上難忘的歲月。新冠肺炎疫情不單直接影響了數百萬人的健康，還在人類的每一方面留下了難以磨滅的印記。對學院而言，這環球疫症一瞬間改變了我們如何進行最為重要的工作：教學。從 2019/20 學年第二學期的第二週開始，所有科目均改為網上授課。

面對這項重大改變，學院在教學、科技支援及運作方面殫精竭慮，力排萬難。縱使疫情帶來了前所未見的挑戰，但卻也有它的積極意義，特別是網上教學的寶貴經驗，對學院日後如何發展混合式學習很有啟發性。此外，學院的講師、行政人員、支援人員及管理層互相合作、分享和扶持，充分發揮了團結一致的精神，展現了眾志成城的力量。
