

Research Workshop Qualitative Research Methodology

Research Centre for Green Energy, Transport and Building (RCGETB)

Date: 28 November 2023 (Tuesday)

Time: 11:15 am - 12:15 pm

Venue: Online (MS Teams)

Dr Joseph LAU

Interim Head of Student Affairs

Senior Lecturer

Division of Business and Hospitality Management, PolyU CPCE

Biography

Dr Joseph Lau has published more than 340 research papers in international journals and professional magazines, contributed over 20 book chapters, 6 books and presented numerous papers at international conferences. He has collaborated with scholars from more than 20 countries and regions across five continents on research projects. He has also obtained various external competitive research grants including FDS, IIDS, QEF, QESS, Basic Law Promotion Funding Scheme for Tertiary Institutions, National Natural Science Foundation of China, and Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada. His research interests are cruise, ferry, the impacts of climate change, maritime education and training, transport history, sustainability issues, supply chain resilience, health logistics, human remains, and regional development.

Topics

1. The overview of qualitative research methodology
2. The reasons, advantages and disadvantages of using qualitative research methodology
3. Key steps of developing qualitative research methodology
4. The application of qualitative research methodology
5. Possible research directions and collaboration

All are welcome!
Register Now!

Kindly make the reservation at: <https://forms.office.com/r/Sbm7Kh6fVf>

This workshop is fully supported by the grants from the Research Grants Council of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, China (Project No. UGC/IDS(R)24/20).

For enquiries, please contact Ms Kristy Lau at kristy.lau@speed-polyu.edu.hk or 3746 0021