Research Workshop on S&P Global - ESG Database

Date: 22 July 2025 (Tuesday)
Time: 2:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Venue: WK-N1204
Mode: Hybrid via MS Teams
Language: English

Mr. Jacob Hung
Sustainability Specialist
S&P Global

Jacob is ESG Client Engagement Specialist of S&P Global Sustainable. He obtained Certified Environmental, Social and Governance Analyst (CESGA®), Certificate in ESG Investing (CFA Institute), BSc in Mathematics and Statistics. He has 12 years of professional experience such as advisory on ESG metrics for reporting, engagement and integration for financial institutions. Academic studies in the past few years have revolved around sustainability topics such as carbon emission, ESG ratings, TCFD/ISSB reporting, climate risks, nature & biodiversity risks and TNFD reporting. S&P Global has also been developing ESG capabilities since then and introducing a wide range of ESG datasets, which is also widely cited across the globe (SSRN link). In this 1-hour session, Mr. Jacob Hung would give an overview on the full suite of ESG datasets they offer and deep-dive into the development and methodology behind their most-cited database: S&P Global ESG Scores and Trucost Environmental dataset and share the application of our data into academic research projects.

Moderator:
Dr Wenli Huang
